JULIAN BYRD — Manager

The Times-Herald decided not to publish the President's message in full after it found it would fill several pages of our valuable space. We presume it is as good as all such messages are, but it was too long to reach, so we restrain from comment.

There still seems to be a wide difference of opinion to the future of the Harney Country along the line of agriculture. Any argument upon this subject would accomplish nothing, but time will tell, it will certainly be thoroughly tested in the near future.

Considerable has been said in the various papers of late regarding a "same" observance of Christmas. The same is due just before the 4th of July each year yet the people go ahead and do just as they please about the matter, very few taking heed to the suggestions offered by the press. Therefore The Times-Herald will make no suggestions.
